Lioyd George's statement was vague and uncertain. Nothing is vague and uncertain. Nothing is known authoritatively in German political or military circles about such 'reasonable' peace proposals. "Had the Entente statesmen seriously desired to pave the way for a peace by understanding they could have approached Germany through the properly authorized persons with a view to discussion that would bring both parties into contact. There can be no question, therefore, of a 'refusal' by Germany of any reasonable

Referring to the half-year period mentioned by Premier Lloyd George, the German Foreign Secretary pointed out that at the time the Entente statesmen had left the world under no delusions whatever regarding their real war aims. "What was the position at that time?" Admiral von Hintze said. "At the end of December, 1917, the Central Powers invited the Entente nations to take part in the Brest-Litovsk peace negotiations with a view to a general peace by understanding. The Entente, however, permitted the period o pass.

Admiral von Hintze reviewed the conditions of peace that had been laid down in other speeches of Premier Lloyd George, in the messages of President Wilson and in the de-cisions of the Entente allied conference at Versailles, and the views expressed by German Chancellors and Count Czernin, former Austro-Hun-garian Foreign Minister. He said that several German Chancellors had pointed out that the enemy continued to show a will to prosecute the war until the annihilation of Germany should be accomplished. "Subsequent developments have shown the same picture," Admiral von Hintze declared. "Sane propositions, wherever they originated, authorized persons a reasonable preminary discussion aiming at a peace by arrangements have been treated with contempt and disdain. The Entente statesmen still resort to the same ambiguous phrases, though these have been refuted hundred times. Their program in truth is as imperialistic and annexationist as before. It hardly is imaginable that reasonable considerations will take tangible form so long as the hatred and the passion

RS. JOHN A. DAY of the Buckingham Hotel has received letters from her daughter Miss Helen Day, who is doing Red Cross work in France, telling of a visit Miss Day made recently to her uncle, Col. Frank M. Rumbold, near the front. Col. Rumbold, who commands the 128th Field Artillery, was billeted in a very famous old cha-teau, and happened to mention to its owner, a Countess, that his niece vas a Red Cross nurse in Paris. The Countess at once urged Col. Rum-Day to visit them both, and a weekend date was arranged.

Miss Day, has been abroad nearly year and has been stationed in or near Paris most of the time. She was one of the first St. Louis girls to go into war work seriously, and did considerable important work on this side before obtaining leave to go to France. Though one of the belles of her set she always has been nterested in relief work, and took a rominent part in social service efrts here before the war. She was for two seasons a member of the structors under the St. Louis Park

An interesting engagement just nnounced is that of Miss Winnifred Rogers of Kansas City and Bruce Carpenter of the same city. Miss Rogers, who is the daughter of Mr. d Mrs. J. W. Rogers, formerly lived n St. Louis and has many friends here. She now is visiting Miss Clarice Whiting of 421 Westgate avenue, and will return to her home in about a fortnight. The wedding date has not been set, but it probably will take place in the early winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lane Edwards and their family, of Kirkwood, summer in Colorado. They were accompanied by Miss Sophia Mallon of Cincinnati, who has been their guest for the last three weeks. Miss Malon's engagement to Lieut. George Lane Edwards Jr., U. S. A., has been nnounced, but no date for the wedling has been set.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Scudder of 75 Vandeventer place are spending the late summer at Harbor Point, Mich. Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Shoemaker also are at Harbor Point for the emainder of August.

Miss Dorothy Livingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Livingston of 40 Kingsbury place, has departed for New York, whence she will sail soon for France. Miss Livingston is going abroad to do Red Cross work, having qualified as a nurses' aid, and will be assigned to one of the base ospitals in France or England.

Mrs. John W. Macdonald and her wo little sons expect to depart soon for an Eastern army training camp to be with Dr. Macdonald, who has been commissioned Captain in the Medical Reserve Corps of the army. They will close their home in Hampton Park, and when Dr. Macdonald departs for overseas they will take an apartment in town.

Miss Ethel Daly of 911A Montgomery street, will depart Saturday for Denver, Colo. She will stop, en oute, at Camp Funston, where she will sing for the soldiers.

A dinner-dance will be given at the Riverview Club tomorrow even-ing to follow the inaugural trap shooting meet of the club, which is on. Dinner will be served at 7:30. and dancing will begin at 9 o'clock. the affair is for members of the lub and their friends.

NOLTE THINKS TAX RATE OF $2.35 INADEQUATE FOR CITY 500

St. Louis Will Go Over the Top

THE SALVATION ARMY $75,000 War Fund IF YOU DO YOUR PART!

YOUR HELP IS NECESSARY WILL YOU GIVE IT?

DONATE LIBERALLY TODAY!

St. Louis Has Always Been 100% in War Work! It Is Up to You to Keep It 100%!

The Salvation Army is more than worthy of your support.

Do you know that the Salvation Army originated the Hut Plan?

The Salvation Army had the first Huts in the Boer War.

The Salvation Army was working in France and Belgium just four days after war was declared.

The Salvation Army had 148 Huts in France before any organization had one.

The Salvation Army serves 30,000 soldiers daily.

They have 100,000 members in Military service.

1000 of their soldiers have been killed in action.

They have 1000 relief workers in the front line trenches, one-third of whom are women.

They have agreements with French, British, Canadian and Belgian Governments to take the widows and orphans to Canada, New Zealand, Australia and Africa and care for them during the war and afterwards return them to their homes.

The Salvation Army has removed 150,000 soldiers from the field.

They have 4000 beds close to railway stations in England and France for soldiers.

Many of the last letters received from the boys are due to the Salvation Army.

They are the last to minister to the wants of the boys going over and the first to greet them upon their return.

The Salvation Army, first at the front, is the last to appeal for funds.

Isn't this enough to make you want to help the Salvation Army? Isn't this enough to make you want St. Louis to go over the top for this more than worthy war work? Isn't it enough that the Salvation Army is endorsed by President Wilson, Secretary of War Baker, General Pershing, every single soul who has seen its wonderful work and principally by the boys, by your boy and mine who is over there fighting so that the world may be free?

The Elks of St. Louis are working to put St. Louis Over the Top

You are going to help the Salvation Army help your soldier! You are going to give liberally today!

SOCRATES ON THE FUTURE. HRASYMACHUS: Ah, Socrates! We have been hoping to see you. Socrates: That is very machus. At a time like this there is so much to think about that one lies pretty quiet. Glaucon: We appreciate that, Socrates. Still, one can't help wondering how it is all coming out. Socrates: No. Do you know how I think it is all going to come out?

Polemarchus: We hope to hear that. Socrates: Very well. It seems to me that a very remarkable phenomenon is rising out of the war. I have been watching it for some time. Do you know how many countries are in alliance against Germany now?

Glaucon: Twenty-two.

Socrates: Yes. Probably still others are coming in, and many are known to sympathize with the allies. On the side of Germany are three allies and probably less than half a dozen partially-Germanized neighbors who sympathize with her. That is, there is sympathy for her in Scandinavia, Denmark, Holland and Spain. In all those countries, too, there are many people against her. Aside from those in these few half-Germanized countries she has no friends anywhere in the world.

Thrasymachus: Quite so.

Socrates: Nor is the concert of arms against Germany all that is going on in the world to indicate how it is with the Germans among other people everywhere. There is the seamen's ban, for instance.

Glaucon: True. Socrates: The seamen, at least those of Britain, are not going to admit German seamen to the great marine family after the war. Polemarchus: I don't blame them a bit.

Socrates: That, however, is not the point. Whether deserving it or not, the German is fast coming to the ignominy of being declared by the world in which he lives to be infra dig. Thrasymachus: It looks very much like it.

Socrates: After a long period of trial, in which everybody came to know him quite well, the German is in a fair way to be thrown out of the human family.

Glaucon: I should say his chances at this time are excellent. Socrates: Then we can advance to the point I was working out when you happened along. Every family of any size at all has a black sheep. Thrasymachus: Of course. Socrates: There is always some member of the family who keeps it in trouble and is incapable of that refinement which we call civilization.

Glaucon: Always. Socrates: That being so, why isn't it possible that the human family has found its black sheep.

Glaucon: It has. Socrates: This black sheep is what has gotten the human family into trouble. He has outraged Belgium. He has sunk women and little children on the Lusitania. He has torpedoed hospital ships loaded with wounded. He has bombed hospitals behind the battle front. He has weltered in blood, sparing no one. He has put Europe to the sword. He fights in violation of all the rules of civilized warfare, and contributes to war instruments of frightfulness which leave the world aghast.

Polemarchus: I like the term baby killer. Socrates: Well, I was thinking of that when you boys came up. I was wondering if the outcome of it sheep episode in any other family. The ordinary family is always more ashamed than anything else. Probably the human family is going to be, too. The ordinary family is not, however, as harsh with its black sheep as I imagine the human family is going to be in this case. Something terrible lies ahead of the Germans. It isn't going to be merely for this war, but for time beyond that. It is no little thing to be adjudged by the world as incapable of complete civilization, and unless I am mistaken that verdict

Polemarchus: You have it, I think. It is too bad. but I suppose the human family can no more escape having a black sheep to deal with than any other fam-Socrates: Then that is settled. Now let us buy a

Besides the athletic events in which some 200 stars, many of them former university and A. A. U, shining lights will compete, there will be the aerial feats. One of the interesting novelites will be a battle between two machines, piloted by Lieut. R. J. Johnson and Lieut. O. C. Francis. Such stunts as the Immelman turn, tait spin, vertical banks and other features also will be staged.

The aerial feats will be going on at the same time as the athletic events, which will be handled in A. A. U style, local Weatern District officials, including Fred Ward. Tom Watts, including Fred Ward. Tom Watts, Joe Forshaw, Irwin Biel and Dr. C. W. Bassett, being named to help handle the events.

The entry list is the largest that has been received for a meet in this vicinity in some days. The 100 and 220 yard, dashes proved the most popular, each drawing 32 starters, while there are 28 in the 50. A complete list of A. A. U. events, as well as a squadron tug of war, will be put on. There also will be a relay between teams from Scott Field and Jefferson Barracks. Baracks athletes will compete in all events except the tug of war.

The meet will be started at 3 o'clock.
